21 October – 11 December 2011
Opening: Thursday 20 October 2011 at 7.30 pm

The autumn programme at Bòlit, Contemporary Art Centre. Girona kicks off on Thursday 20 October at 7.30 pm. It comprises two exhibitions: the international group exhibition Forever at Bòlit-LaRambla and the solo exhibition As the River Flows_ Maa tere manalen by Arbúcies artist Tere Recarens at Bòlit-SantNicolau. In addition, the Dadespai will feature an installation by Girona artist Alicia Kopf and host the opening of Active Archive, a participatory work in progress. Finally, November will see a new edition of Bòlit Orbit, produced this year in collaboration with Casa de Cultura.

EXHIBITIONS

Forever is an exhibition curated by Sílvia Dauder that was presented last spring at the ProjecteSD gallery in Barcelona. It brings together work by Dora García (Valladolid, 1965), Joe Scanlan (Circleville, USA, 1961) and Isidoro Valcárcel Medina (Múrcia, 1937) and explores the temporary nature of things and language in relation to the limits of the object of art. These pieces always offer an accessible, ever-changing experience, where the observer has to complete the pieces for them to take on a greater meaning and depth in time.

The exhibition As the River Flows_ Maa tere Manalen presented by Tere Recarens (Arbúcies, 1967) at Bòlit-SantNicolau, includes two projects based on her experience on the notions of identity and belonging. For both pieces, the artist was in close contact with small communities in Turkey and Africa, exploring symbolic elements linked to identity and territory. The first project received a KREAS grant for creating, producing, exhibiting and promoting arts from Girona City Council.

ACTIVE ARCHIVE

In parallel, the Dadespai hosts Active Archive a progressive and consultable archive on creation in Girona where users can access in situ information on creators in Girona working on contemporary art as professionals. There will be a presentation of the installation and book Ways of (not) Going Home by Girona artist Alicia Kopf (Imma Ávalos, Girona, 1982) and two programmed activities: the presentation of the latest Art Jove 2012 call for entries from the Catalan Youth

Agency and a new edition of IGAC Container, featuring artist Núria Güell (Vidreres, 1981).

BÒLIT ORBIT

November sees a new edition of Bòlit Orbit, a line of work by the centre that aims to extend its activity above and beyond its usual exhibition spaces. The Josep Viader Auditorium at Girona Provincial Council's Casa de Cultura will host the presentation Artmediatic Enclave. Art [1970-1990] TV by media historian and researcher Antoni Mercader and a roundtable entitled Art and Internationalisation with Pep Dardanyà, director of Can Xalant. Centre for Creation and Contemporary Thought in Mataró; Irene Jimeno, member of SingCat; Lucila Mallart, cultural manager; Tere Recarens, artist, and Eva Sòria, coordinator of visual arts at Institut Ramon Llull, moderated by Rosa Pera, director of Bòlit.
